

Highlights from Saunders Students on Co-op

What Do You Do?

At intuit in San Diego, Calif., I work as the program manager across teams and help them to deliver some amazing projects for a bigger product called TurboTax.

Major in Accounting and Minor in Management Information Systems
Class of 2016

Co-op Company: Intuit
Co-op Position: Program Manager

What's great about your co-op?

When my family moved to Ithaca, NY it was my dream to work in California for a well-known company. I decided to go to RIT for business because I wanted to try something new... and so far it's an amazing experience. After attending RIT, I can see myself getting closer and closer every day to my dream and my goal.

Why Saunders/RIT?

At RIT, I see myself getting closer and closer every day to my dream and my goal. I chose RIT for business because I wanted to try something new. I've had great opportunities that have landed me in my current position.

Arash Memarzadeh

"After talking to a few of my colleagues and hearing about their experience with intuit, I was eager to learn more about the company and their culture. I spent a few weeks learning and researching about the company to make sure that intuit was a good fit for me. Following the interview I was offered the position, and I couldn't have been any happier. My dream came true."

intuit
