Application Instructions

Admission Requirements

Students applying for admission to the RIT Saunders Graduate program must hold, or currently be completing, a bachelors degree at BJTU/RIT China.

Students should have earned a GPA of at least 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale) in all their undergraduate coursework at BJTU/RIT China.

For consideration for early admission, students must submit their application and supporting documents by March 30, 2018. Supporting documents include:

- Application Form
- Curriculum vitae/resume
- Application Essay
- English Language Score Sheet (if applicable)

Application Essay

Please provide a personal statement describing your educational objectives and research interests. You may wish to address: (1) why you are applying for the degree you have chosen and your academic interests, (2) how your degree program will related to your long-range career objectives, (3) what personal or "non-academic" qualities you will contribute to the learning environment in your program, (4) what prior experience you have with respect to your chosen program, and (5) specifically why you want to attend the Graduate program at RIT.

Official Transcripts

By signing the application form you authorize permission for RIT to contact BJTU/RIT China to verify your academic records. Students must submit copies of official transcripts of all other previous post-secondary education. Academic records in a language other than English must be accompanied by an official translation.

Submitting the Application

Please submit the application for admission and required documents as attachments by email to: Michelle Ma.

Admission decisions will be made by the Graduate Admissions Committee at RIT. Students will be notified of the decision by April 30, 2018.
