

	MS in Accounting	MS in Business Analytics	MS in Computational Finance	MS in Finance	MS in Global Supply Chain Management
Description	Designed to advance accounting professionals in their careers and to meet educational requirements for the NYS CPA exam	A specialized degree leveraging analytic tools to solve business problems. Integration of current industry data intelligence tools help students prepare for fruitful careers in business analytics.	Prepares you for a career in computational and quantitative finance, computational analytics, and quantitative modeling	Prepares you for managerial careers in corporate finance, investment analysis, portfolio management, and financial consulting	An interdisciplinary program that integrates concepts from supply chain, operation management, analytics, data visualization, industrial engineering, global business, and management
Best Suited For	Recent graduates and professionals with experience or an educational background in accounting	Recent graduates and professionals interested in becoming business analysts, data architects, and data scientists	Recent graduates and professionals with strong math and quantitative skills interested in becoming quantitative analysts, portfolio managers, and data scientists	Recent graduates and professionals with strong analytical and business skills seeking careers in corporate finance, investments, or financial services	Recent graduates and professionals interested in obtaining global supply chain skills and knowledge, while also building strong analytical, quantitative, operation, and leadership skills
Program Highlights	One-year program meeting NYS requirements to sit for the CPA exam and attain CPA license	F-1 OPT STEM 24-month work extension, faculty ranked #6 in MIS, advanced certificate of accounting and financial analytics option, and discipline specified analytics courses are built-in	Joint program with Mathematical Sciences that integrates finance, math, and computing. Int'l students may qualify for a F-1 OPT STEM 24-month work extension.	Program ranked #21 by The Financial Engineer and prepares students to sit for the CFA exam	The one-year, interdisciplinary program provides a strong foundation in business while allowing for specialization through the different program tracks. A client-facing Capstone project provides a culminating experience for students to integrate their knowledge and test strategies in a real-world consulting partnership. Int'l students may qualify for a F-1 OPT STEM 24-month work extension.
Featured Courses	Information Systems Auditing and Assurance Services, Tax Analysis and Strategy, Comparative Financial Statement Analysis, Advanced Accounting	Introduction to Data Analytics and Business Intelligence, Data Management for Business Analytics, Marketing Analytics	Equity Analysis, Advanced Derivatives, Mathematics of Finance, Debt Analysis, Survey of Finance	Financial Analysis for Managers, Securities and Investment Analysis, Accounting for Decision Makers, Options and Futures	Lean Six Sigma, Cross-Cultural Management, Project Management, Advanced Topics in Tech Management, Introduction to Data Analytics and Business Intelligence, Field Experience in Business Consulting, Sustainability, Financial Analytics
Program Length	12 months		12-17 months	9-12 months	12 months
Program Requirements	10 courses (30 credits)	10 courses (30 credits)	12 courses (36 credits)	10 courses (30 credits)
Start	Fall/Spring*
Admissions Requirements	Bachelor's degree, personal statement, GMAT or GRE, résumé or CV, TOEFL or IELTS (international students) GMAT waiver must be requested at the time of application for consideration
Tuition & Fees	Tuition and fees per semester for full-time students: $22,760
Financial Assistance	Scholarships, assistantships, and students loans are available Financial aid awards are determined in conjunction with admission decisions (after applications are submitted in full)

*Part-time starts only. Full time starts may be accommodated on an individual basis.

	MS in Entrepreneurship & Innovative Ventures	MS in Hospitality & Tourism Management	MS in Human Resource Development	MS in Service Leadership & Innovation
Description	A specialized degree that prepares students to be an entrepreneur and a small business leader	Prepares students to step into numerous mid-level hospitality and tourism management and government policy positions by focusing on hospitality business planning, economic management and development of quality processes	Provides the next level of learning in creating a strategy for human capital by teaching professionals to leverage specific essential competencies to create a flexible workforce that adapts to change and aligns with strategic organizational goals	Prepares those who work in any industry to transform their organizations through creative ways of thinking, problem solving and anticipating the future
Best Suited For	Recent graduates and professionals seeking entrepreneurial skills necessary for launching new ventures and managing small businesses	Recent graduates and professionals interested in learning all aspects of the hospitality and service industry and the development of quality processes to deliver exceptional leadership	Recent graduates and professionals interested in learning how to successfully plan and execute corporate strategy related to human capital, develop workplace talent, and retain valuable employees	Recent graduates and professionals who want to leverage opportunities to innovate and lead change utilizing industry forward techniques
Program Highlights	Supported by the Simone Center, the #1 innovation center nationwide	Service and innovative focus, real-world capstone project option, top career placements globally, and luxury market orientation	Strategic human capital development, personalized degree options, internationally diverse, real-world capstone project option	Human centered approach, personalized degree options, internationally diverse, real-world capstone project options
Featured Courses	Financing New Ventures, Negotiations, Entrepreneurship and New Venture Creation, Technology Entrepreneurship, Applied Venture Creation	Strategic Hospitality and Tourism Branding, Service Design Fundamentals, Economic Performance Analysis for Hospitality and Tourism, Processes and Assessment of Hospitality and Tourism Industries	Foundations in Human Resource Development, Program Evaluation and Design, Performance Analysis and Development, Training for Global Organizations, Research Methods	Service Design Fundamentals, Breakthrough Thinking, Creativity, and Innovation, Service Design and Implementation, Customer Centricity, Service Analytics, Leading Innovation
Program Length			12 months
Program Requirements	10 courses (30 credits)		11 courses (33 credits)
Start	Fall/Spring*
Admissions Requirements	Bachelor's degree, personal statement, GMAT or GRE, résumé or CV, TOEFL or IELTS (international students) GMAT waiver must be requested at the time of application for consideration
Tuition & Fees	Tuition and fees per semester for full-time students: $22,760
Financial Assistance	Scholarships, assistantships, and students loans are available Financial aid awards are determined in conjunction with admission decisions (after applications are submitted in full)

*Part-time starts only. Full time starts may be accommodated on an individual basis.