This document is used to define how the scholarship award will be distributed among team members. All team members identified in the Tiger Tank Entry submission must be identified on this consent form. And each team member must sign this form before scholarship amounts can be awarded. Scholarships outlined in this form will be applied starting the first semester of the program. Also, signature dates must predate the date the form is submitted. Finally, a Saunders College of Business Admissions Representative must sign this form to become effective.
